IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

BRYAN K. HAWKER, an individual,

Plaintiff,

v.

EQUIFAX INC.; and DOES 1 through 5,
inclusive,

Defendants.

COMPLAINT

Civil No. 250900245

Judge: MOW

Plaintiff, Bryan K. Hawker, pro se, hereby complains against Defendant Equifax, Inc. and Does 1-5, inclusive (collectively all "Defendants"), and alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

This action is brought by Plaintiff, an individual with whom with Defendant Equifax, Inc., a credit reporting agency, reported inaccurate and unverified credit information regarding Plaintiff and upon written requests by Plaintiff, failed to investigate or respond to written requests pursuant to state and federal credit reporting laws. Plaintiff has incurred financial damages as a direct result of Defendant Equifax, Inc.'s intentional negligence by failing to investigate, verify and respond to Plaintiff's numerous requests.

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff is a resident of West Jordan, Utah, located in Salt Lake County.
2. Defendant Equifax Inc. (“Equifax”) is an American multinational consumer credit reporting agency headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia.
3. Defendant Equifax is one of the three largest consumer credit reporting agencies, which collects and aggregates information on over 800 million individual consumers and more than 88 million businesses worldwide.
4. In addition to credit and demographic data and services to business, Equifax sells credit monitoring and fraud prevention services directly to consumers.
5. Defendant Equifax operates and conducts business in Utah.
6. Does 1-5 represent Defendants that are unknown at the time of filing this complaint but may be liable for damages alleged herein.

JURISDICTION, VENUE AND TIER

7. This is a civil case with subject matter jurisdiction being conferred upon the Court by Utah Code Ann. § 78A-5-102(2).
8. Venue is proper under Utah Code Ann. § 78B-3-307 and § 78B-3-205.
9. Based on the damages alleged by Plaintiff in this action, notwithstanding any punitive damages which might be assessed, this matter qualifies for Tier 1 discovery.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

10. Plaintiff refers to and incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

11. In early 2024, while reviewing his credit status, Plaintiff noticed a significant drop in his credit score, as reported by Equifax.

12. Upon further review, Plaintiff observed numerous items that contained negative treatment of claims, as reported by Equifax.

13. Many of the negative claims reported by Equifax were either unsubstantiated, unverified, or simply incorrect.

14. Plaintiff, recognizing the errors being reported by Equifax, sent written correspondence to Equifax on or about 7/19/2024 questioning and disputing claims being reported and given negative treatment. See First Letter to Equifax, attached hereto as “Exhibit A.”

First Letter

15. Plaintiff, in his first correspondence to Equifax, began by attempting to clarify an error with an address reported, one that was contained within a list of addresses believed to be known addresses of Plaintiff, but one which Plaintiff had actually never resided.

16. Next, Plaintiff identified eight (8) accounts that he disputed due to the information being either incorrect, invalid, or containing mistakes. The eight accounts stem from the following vendors:

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| • Ford Motor Company | • Pentagon Federal Credit Union |
| • Ford Motor Company | • Sheffield Financial |
| • Navy Federal Credit Union | • Pentagon Federal Credit Union |
| • Pentagon Federal Credit Union | • Bank of the West |

17. Then, Plaintiff identified and disputed the following collection accounts that were deemed to be in error.

- Portfolio Recovery
- Portfolio Recovery
- LVNV Funding LLC
- LVNV Funding LLC
- Paramount Recovery Services

18. Plaintiff, in sending the first letter to Equifax, was careful to use his current address, one by which Equifax recognized to be Plaintiff's current address.

19. Plaintiff sent the first letter to Equifax via certified mail. See “Exhibit A.”

20. The first letter to Equifax was received on 7/24/2024 by James McKellar, an individual known to be an employee of Equifax.

21. Plaintiff never received any response to his first letter to Equifax requesting to have the information reviewed and verified.

Second Letter

22. Plaintiff, determined to contact Equifax regarding the errors being reported by Equifax, sent his second written correspondence to Equifax on or about 10/29/2024, again questioning and disputing claims being reported and given negative treatment. See Second Letter to Equifax, attached hereto as “Exhibit B.”

23. The second letter to Equifax referenced the prior first letter sent, which had been sent on 7/19/2024 and received on 7/24/2024, again by James McKellar. See “Exhibit B.”

24. Plaintiff never received a response to his second letter to Equifax requesting to have the information reviewed and verified.

Third Letter

25. At this juncture, Plaintiff sought relief through legal counsel, who, on limited representation, prepared and sent a third letter to Equifax regarding the matter. See Third Letter to Equifax, attached hereto as “Exhibit C.”

26. The third letter to Equifax, prepared and sent by counsel, was titled “Notice of Dispute; Notice of Intent to Sue.”

27. The third letter to Equifax referenced and outlined everything contained in the first and second letters.

28. Further, it identified the eight (8) accounts that Plaintiff disputed due to the information being either incorrect, invalid, or containing mistakes.

29. The third letter also identified and disputed collection accounts that were deemed to be in error.

30. The third letter to Equifax was sent by counsel on 12/12/2024, and referenced a 15-day period, after receipt of the letter, for Equifax to respond and/or remove the negative reporting to Plaintiff’s credit.

31. Well more than 15-days has passed and Equifax has failed to remove the negative reporting and/or to respond to counsel’s third letter sent.

32. Counsel’s letter to Equifax included an email to which counsel could be reached, should the expiration of time had become an issue.

33. To date, counsel has neither received a written response by regular mail nor a response by email from Equifax.

CLAIM FOR RELIEF

34. Plaintiff refers to and incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

35. The Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), 15 U.S.C. § 1681, is a federal law that regulates the consumer reporting industry.

36. The FCRA's purpose is to ensure that consumer information is reported accurately, fairly, and in a timely manner.

37. The FCRA also protects the privacy of personal information collected by consumer reporting agencies (CRAs).

38. Equifax clearly fits into the consumer reporting industry to which the Act intends to regulate and protect consumers.

39. In addition to strict federal laws protecting consumers from inaccurate and unverified reporting, states have also enacted laws or promulgated rules intended to protect consumer from the same unfair or inequitable treatment as the federal law.

40. Under Utah Admin. Code R152-21, a rule that governs credit services organizations, sets forth consumer protections and clearly defines the types of misreporting and mistreatment that the rule intends to protect consumers from.

Utah Admin. Code R152-21-3 - Definitions

(1) "Challenge" means any act performed by a credit services organization to dispute an entry appearing on the buyer's credit report.

(2) "Credit report" means any document prepared by a credit reporting agency used to demonstrate a buyer's credit-worthiness, credit standing, or credit capacity.

(3) "Inaccurate information" means data that includes a typographical error or similar clerical or technical fault that creates reasonable doubt about the data's reliability.

(4) "Material error" means false or misleading information on a buyer's credit report that could reasonably affect a decision to extend or deny credit to the buyer.

(5) "Material omission" means information that: (a) should appear on a buyer's credit report but does not; and (b) could reasonably affect a decision to extend or deny credit to the buyer.

(6) "Outdated information" means information that, in accordance with state or federal law, should not appear on the buyer's credit report because of its age.

(7) "Unverifiable information" means an entry on a credit report that lacks supporting evidence sufficient to convince a reasonable person that the entry is proper.

41. By failing to respond to three (3) letters sent by Plaintiff and proven to be received by Equifax, Defendant Equifax has failed to follow the protections set forth in both federal law and state administrative rules.

42. Therefore, Equifax has committed intentional negligence by failing to review, correct, or respond to Plaintiff's inquiries.

43. Plaintiff has incurred monetary damages in the form of bad credit, no credit, denied loans and credit applications, as well as demonstrated intentional negligence by not properly reporting, investigating, or addressing disputes.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the time for Equifax to respond has now passed and Plaintiff has incurred, and continues to incur, damages as a result of Equifax's failure to follow requirements and procedures as set forth in federal and state law. Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendant for damages as follows:

- A. Intentional Negligence by Equifax in its failure to investigate and respond to three (3) letter and requests from Plaintiff. For judgment against Equifax in the form of credit repair, monetary compensation and damages incurred by Plaintiff as a result of Equifax's failure, and punitive damages or fines against Equifax as the court sees fit to award.
- B. For all attorney fees, court costs, and other amounts leading up to and spent in bringing this action.
- C. Under all claims for relief, for such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

DATED this 13 day of January 2025.

NOTICE OF DISPUTE; NOTICE OF INTENT TO SUE

Re: Equifax Improper Reporting, Failure to Follow Proper Procedures, Failure to Comply with Utah Law

To Equifax and Other Parties With Whom This May Concern:

I am representing Mr. Hawker as legal counsel in this matter concerning the negative treatment of claims that were reported, and continue to appear, on his credit report. As you can imagine, negative reporting to one's credit report can have devastating effects on one's credit score, purchasing power and many other aspects in life where credit scores are taken into consideration. In Mr. Hawker's situation, many of the negative claims were either unsubstantiated, unverified, or simply incorrect.

Under general credit reporting rules, an individual ("debtor") can question or dispute claims that were reported and given negative treatment. Mr. Hawker sent written correspondence to Equifax on 7/19/2024 identifying specific accounts and disputing them in full. Equifax did not respond within 30 days, nor did they

308 West 350 South
Ivins, Utah 84738
matt@consultingalliancegroupinc.com

respond at all to the request. Mr. Hawker reached out a second time and sent written correspondence to Equifax through certified mail, which was delivered on 11/5/2024 and received the next day by James McKellar, presumably an agent for Equifax. See attached documents.

In his correspondence, Mr. Hawker first clarified an error with an address where he had never resided. Then, he identified eight accounts that he disputed due to the information being either incorrect, invalid or containing mistakes. The eight accounts stem from the following vendors:

- Ford Motor Company
- Ford Motor Company
- Navy Federal Credit Union
- Pentagon Federal Credit Union
- Pentagon Federal Credit Union
- Sheffield Financial
- Pentagon Federal Credit Union
- Bank of the West

Mr. Hawker also identified and disputed the following collection accounts that he deemed to be in error.

- Portfolio Recovery
- Portfolio Recovery
- LVNV Funding LLC
- LVNV Funding LLC
- LVNV Funding LLC
- Paramount Recovery Services

Mr. Hawker never received any response to his two (2) requests to have the information reviewed and verified. The only conclusion can be that Equifax did not review the foregoing accounts and collection accounts. The time for Equifax to respond has now passed and Mr. Hawker has incurred, and continues to incur, damages as a result of Equifax's failure to follow requirements and procedures as set forth in state and federal law.

Mr. Hawker is asking for the immediate removal of negative reporting by Equifax on the foregoing accounts and collection accounts within 15 days of the receipt of this letter. Should there be no response or action by Equifax, Mr. Hawker will move forward in seeking damages and relief in this matter.

Best regards,

Matthew K. Broadbent
Attorney at Law
matt@consultingalliancegroupinc.com

As an attorney representing Mr. Hawker, I'm authorized to discuss such matters as the damages associated with it. You will note the following authorization signed by Mr. Hawker and it should be retained as part of your record.

I, Bryan Hawker, authorize the release of any, and all information, written or otherwise, pertaining to my claim with Equifax and matters associated with the claim(s), and to do so both verbally and in writing, to Matthew K. Broadbent, Attorney at Law. This authorization shall remain in place until cancellation of such is made in writing.
